

Arxis Technology Employee Included in the CPA Technology Advisor's "40 Under 40"

Mark Severance, Director of Sales and Marketing for Arxis Technology, has been recognized by the CPA Technology Advisor as a "40 Under 40" Honoree.

Simi Valley, CA (PRWEB) November 19, 2010 -- Mark Severance, Director of Sales and Marketing for Arxis Technology, has been recognized by the CPA Technology Advisor as a "40 Under 40" Honoree.

Technology Editor, Isaac O'Bannon, said the program is designed to recognize "professionals who are actively engaged in making tax and accounting practices stronger and better prepared for changes to come, whether in their own practices or through their roles with the vendors who serve the profession ... they all share the common traits of leadership that is revealed through their dedication to client service, strong ethical conviction, desire to help educate their peers, and their adoption or work in development of technologies that help firms grow." "It's hard to believe I'm still under 40," Severance said. "Birth was such a long time ago, I can barely recall any of the details." "Seriously," he continued, "I'm honored and humbled to be included in this amazing group of young leaders."

Arxis Principals, David Cieslak and Bob Gaby, added, "Mark's inclusion in this list is well deserved. He is a key leader within our organization and respected by all who know him. And now that he has finally reached legal working age, we expect even better things from him in the future!"
