Simi Valley, CA (PRWEB) March 7, 2011 -- Arxis Technology, Inc. is pleased to announce that Mark Severance, the firm's Director of Sales and Marketing, has become a principal for the firm.

“Mark has played a significant role in the success of Arxis Technology for many years,” said David Cieslak, Arxis Co-founder and Principal. “His people skills, creativity, and commitment to excellence have helped shape our growth and success. I am confident that his increased leadership and ownership will boost his potential to contribute to the future growth and prosperity of Arxis Technology.”

“We are so happy to be at this stage in the evolution of Arxis Technology,” shared Bob Gaby, Arxis Co-founder and Principal. “Mark's entry into ownership is indicative of our wonderful good fortune in developing our up-and-coming leader group. We feel very well positioned for future growth in our leadership ranks.”

Mark, 36, joined Arxis Technology in mid-2000 as the Director of Marketing. His role quickly expanded to oversee Arxis Technology sales, account management, and recruiting.

Mark received his MBA from the The Graziadio School of Business and Management at Pepperdine University in 2003. He is a recipient of the “40 Under 40 Award from the CPA Technology Advisor and The San Fernando Valley Business Journal. He is the chair of the marketing committee for the Information Technology Alliance.
